

BACON & BREWS

MAY 19TH, 2012

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following provides a guideline for the event.

The pork is from Heritage Breed Red Wattle pigs from Cook Pigs in Fallbrook, fed only local feed (including spent grain from Aztec Brewery), produce, and macadamia nuts. They also get Bermuda/oat/molasses hay to graze on. Red Wattles originate from New Caledonia, a French Island in the South Pacific, the Red Wattle gets its name from its red color and the fleshy skin that hangs under its jowls. This extremely rare breed, adapts to climates well and is an excellent forager. It is prized for its tender meat and splendid hams. Red Wattle pork is lean and juicy with a rich beef-like taste and texture. EAT THEM TO PRESERVE THEM.
